

WASHINGTON, January 1, 1865.

of the brightest in the history of this country other than it. It is filled with victories and but few failures and reverses to arms—the two greatest of which were the defeat of the command of General Butler as military commander. The ill-fated Red River expedition sealed the fate of Nathaniel P. Banks, in a military point of view; and the want of success at Fort Fisher will make a fiasco of General Burnside, the last of the civilian Generals that have been retained in an important independent command.

Having carefully and patiently read columns after columns of accounts of the Wilmington expedition, and studied closely the carefully drawn diagrams of the situation, he is forced to the conviction that General Butler did not do all that he might have done, and that he does not possess that degree of pertinacity necessary to make a successful General. The result of this examination will incline the public mind to the scrutiny of his past military career, and the result will be that no instance can be found where success has followed his movements, when he has been entrusted with the chief command. He has had many glorious opportunities and has attempted much, but has always failed. Big Game, his first attempt, in the war was a failure; two attempts on Richmond were failures; his attempt to capture Petersburg was a failure; and what has not that man done for our country? He secured the position of Bermuda Hundred, and even there he did not improve his opportunities, by neglecting to properly fortify his position, was soon driven back so that his incapacity was no obstruction to the Richmond and Petersburg Road.

He is in the north bank of the James. Hancock and Elnoy won for him all that he could, and since the death of Birney he has taken one step in advance. Why, then, is he kept in command? It is because here that political considerations weighed strongly in keeping him in command. Butler is a representative man, in his services with him the sympathies and antipathies of a large class of people. His services early in 1864 almost procured his removal, but his strength was needed in the political campaign; but that is past. He is a General, then he is in a virtual command, and if I mistake not, the people will demand that he be sent to some command where he can display his executive abilities, and that real Generals—Rosecrans and Hooker, Pope and Sherman—be sent to the field. These do something besides look at a fort, retire without an attempt to storm it, or, as in 1864 has witnessed the subsequent breaking of the power of the rebellion, and reducing to his effective armies in number, and that one is cooped around the walls of Richmond. At present they have the rebels a force in the field where we have not an equal force to meet them, and hold it in check—aye to whip it wherever and whenever we can reach it. Sherman holds and whips Early; Burnside whips Breckenridge; Thomas whips Johnston; almost annihilates Hood; Grant holds and Sherman with his 50,000 volunteers is at liberty. Porter can hold what he wants. Sherman has recently captured, leaving nothing at liberty as soon as his arrangements are completed, to set out again on a triumphal march.

Where will Sherman go next, is the question. The fears of the rebels plainly show where he can do the most harm, and where he can do the least. He can do too, see his gunboats ascend the Savannah river, and his army march upon Savannah, for by this movement Angus's mill, which is his powder mill is isolated from North and Charleston is blocked and cut off from capture from their rear.

Year 1865 bids fair to close this war. Lincoln has called for 300,000 men with even one third these fresh men in the field before March, a corps of 50,000 men can be sent from their march from the Tennessee River southward to Mobile, and cut off 50,000 can enter North Carolina. Sherman's conquering legions, and resources destroyed, (for Sherman says that he will clean that State out so that a crew flying over it will have to carry his food.) Georgia and Alabama are in his hands. He will ask from whence Lee's food is to draw supplies of men or food. He will ask the negroes from which they propose to arm? Echo answers yes. This may be deemed a bright prospect, and yet I would ask if, when Sherman has accomplished so much with 50,000 men, we are not warranted in the belief that I have set forth can be accomplished by an additional 100,000 men. Would the Government be fortunate enough to raise 200,000 by the middle of the first of May will see every square mile from the Mississippi to the Chesapeake, in our possession, and every rebel outside of Virginia swept completely out of existence.

With this bright prospect before them, the people ought to come forward with money and fill the recent call, for its object is to make short work of the war. Fill the call by the 1st of March and there will be no more out of Texas on the 4th of May next an armed rebel saw the few hills that will cling to the mountains and be decimated by the prunings of the sword, that they will hand this war to their children. When the army of Sherman was about to enter Savannah these rebel editors was the first to come out and say that the people of Savannah were glad to exchange Hardee for Sherman. So it will be throughout the South. Take away a few fiery leaders and Jeff. Davis and perhaps a thousand fire-eaters, and there will be no more of the rest of the people of the South coming back and living with us in peace and quick. Aye, like the people of Saratoga, they will be glad to exchange the exacting tyranny of Jeff. Davis for the rule of Abraham Lincoln.

The New York Tribune says, "The reason why Drake's Plaster Bitters are so universally used and have such an immense sale, is that they are always made up to the original standard, of highly irrigating material and of pure quality, although the prices have so largely advanced." &c.

"The Tribune just lifts the nail on the head. The Plaster Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what it is. The Recipe is published in each bottle, and the bottles are not re-filled in also." At least twenty imitations and counterfeits have sprung up. They impose upon the people once and then the last of them.

The Plaster Bitters are now used in all the Government Hospitals, are recommended by the best physicians, and are warmly adopted as an immediate remedial agent. There are authentic reports.

"I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plaster Bitters have saved my life."
REV. W. H. WAGGONER,
Madrid, New York.

"I have sent you two bottles more of my Plaster Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. They freed."

H. J. RING, Wash., D. C.

"The Plaster Bitters have cured me of the derangement of the kidneys and the urinary organs. It has disordered me for years. It acts like a charm." &c.
C. C. MOORE, Nev. 23 Broadway.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 24, 1868.
DEAR SIR:—I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and cold hands, and a general derangement of system. Physicians do not succeed in relieving me. Some friends in New York, who were using Plaster Bitters, advised upon me to try it. I commenced with a small tin with glorious effect after dinner. Feeling better by morning, in a few days I was obtained to find the cramps and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plaster Bitters. Respectfully,
JUDITH RUSSELL.

If the ladies of America but know what thousands of them are constantly relating to us, we candidly believe we are one half of the weakness, prostration and distress experienced by them would vanish. James Manda, Esq., of 102 West 14th St., N. Y., says, "he has three children, the first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them, but that he has taken Plaster Bitters for the last two years, and has a child now eighteen months old which she has nursed and reared herself, and both are healthy and well." The article is invaluable to mothers."

"Such weakness might be continued for a volume but he best evidence is to try them. They speak for themselves. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, loss of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, diabetes, &c., will find speedy relief through these Bitters."

They are now sold by all respectable dealers throughout the Atlantic globe. In some cases bottles less than the United States Stamp over the top, and take one extra. You do not sell it in any other way. I am a physician, and according to all Plaster Bitters is the best I use, and would be immediately relieved by it. Dozens of bottles tested; examine and see that the stamp has not been mutilated.

Persons unacquainted with the Melodeon and its history, will bear in mind that we are the pioneer and leading manufacturers, not only in the United States, but in the world. We commenced the manufacture of Melodeons in the fall of the year 1847, and since that time have flourished and sold

THIRTY THOUSAND!

These instruments are now in use nearly in the United States and Canada, also in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, and the West Indies, and from all these quarters we have the most flattering testimonials of the high estimation in which they are held by all the Musical Families, they have invariably been AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUM!

Whenever exhibiting in competition with others, we shall take pains in forwarding by mail (at our own expense) our Illustrated Catalogue, in which every instrument we manufacture, is fully described and illustrated by elegant engravings.

All Melodeons of our manufacture, either sold by us or delivered in any part of the United States or Canada, are warranted to be perfect in every respect, and should repairs be necessary, before the expiration of five years, we will, from the date of sale, we hold ourselves ready and willing to make the same free of charge, provided that injury is not caused by accident or design.

CAUTION.

We daily see advertisements of some new road instrument, with strange name, purporting to be superior to Melodeons and School Organs. A new exterior and new name will naturally attract attention; but the public will bear in mind that all Real Instruments, now manufactured in the United States and Canada, are, or near as they can be made without infringing our patents, are of our own.

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons can be found

GOTTSCALK ON KNASE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knase Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their excellence, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their quality. The base is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrysaline), and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or in this country by the most celebrated makers.

Letter from Bradford.

Editors Gazette.—I have read with interest the communications from different ones in various parts of our county, but have looked in vain for the hand-writing from Bradford. I have waited long enough, for I do not feel willing to admit that we are doing nothing, or that we move so slow that two states are necessary to discover our progress. I am ready, however, to allow that some other hand is more able than mine to become the great chronicler of the various events from these parts. Yet, from the fear that it will be the conclusion that Bradford simply exists. I will break the ice, leaving you at liberty, should others happen to communicate, to leave me out, with the full understanding that no one will get cold or wet.

Bradford as a town is up with the average of localities for all manner of farming purposes; in fact, I believe that our county Board of Equalizers, have classed her a No. 1 town. This we do not claim, and it is hoped that for the sake of our sturdy farmers, that the next board will discover the error and correct.

We have no commercial centers in the shape of railroad depots, or mills to boast of, no place that seems to be the center of creation. But many happy homes that are the center of attraction to many happy families. A stream, Turkey Creek, passes through our entire town from east to west, not navigable, but of such proportions that three bridges are necessary to be maintained for the accommodation of the traveling public, at considerable expense. Emerald Grove and Fairfield, very peaceable little lullabies, no trouble to any one, except the assessor and connoisseurs, for the little fractional parcels of land forming the several village lots, are always to be described by course and distance, meets and bounds.

There are three Meeting Houses in our town, and during the four part of each day we rest in the shade of the fourth. They are of good construction, well-furnished and well-furnished—goodly places for a Christian people to commend themselves and renew their vows.

No grocery is allowed or licensed, to create paupers, but I am sorry to be compelled to admit that some of our citizens, in returning from Janesville, to which place we go to market and trade, are not so much troubled with the length of the road as with its width.

Our citizens are mostly loyal, and the clear ring of love for the "Cause of Our Fathers" is ever heard from our halloo boxes. We have a little of the disloyal element among us, but as plants are nourished and made to grow by the decaying pulp that once surrounded its seed, so loyalty, with us, is kept vigorous and thrifty from the decay of, and the opposition some times raised by modern democracy.

Well, the year 1864 is no more, but in memory; and how many will look back upon it with saddened hearts; not as the cause of, but as the year in which great grief gathered them into its cold folds and laid heavy loads of death bearing so raw upon their hearts.

Great affliction scourge our land and heavy burdens are laid upon us all. But may we not hope that the ere of our national calamities is at hand? May we not hope that our soldiers are preparing the great gift of "peace to our land" to hang upon the "Tree of Liberty" for us in the New Year of 1865?

Surely there seems to be a "light in the window" for us and if we will but "rally once again," it is ours.

Pardon the digression and we will go back to Bradford and see what she has done for the country. All call for men have been filled and we have a credit of no less than fifteen to apply on the pending draft. We shall unquestionably have to furnish more—a few more—and the question is, how shall it be done and do the greatest justice to all. Heretofore we have raised $200 bounty per man, by tax, and what more was necessary to obtain the men, has been raised by a sort of voluntary, so much-per-head tax on those liable to be drafted. But many have sought and received the benefit without helping to raise the bounty. They have laughed at those raising the bounty fund, calling them cowardly sneaks, &c. &c. I presume this is the case with many, if not with all towns in this county, and if the thing is done in the same way again, the same game will be played again. Now I propose a remedy. Let the draft list, and as we have but a few men to raise, let those who have formerly paid their regular proportion into the per-head tax, enter into a draft protecting agreement, that if one of their number gets a ticket and is accepted he shall have a sub, or a fine pile of greenbacks; but if the ticket drops outside, let them get out as best they can. Is the plan intelligible and tangible? Now Mr. Editor, I have spun away a long time, and if accepted as either a "regular" or an "occasional" I shall not promise to dive into everything I see that happens to be wrong in my view, and pitch everybody out of the slough—but myself, but will endeavor to be decorous, short as the subjects may admit, blunt as the occasion requires, and ever your humble servant, BRAD.

"Brad," you are welcome. Do so some more.—Eds. Gazette.

JANESVILLE, WIS., THURSDAY, JAN. 5, 1865.

NUMBER 262.

A New Regiment—The Forty-Sixth Wis.

A new regiment of infantry has just been organized under the recent call of the President, to be called the 46th Wisconsin. The Governor has appointed field and staff officers as follows:

Colonel—Lt. Col. Fred. S. Lovell, of the 33d Regiment.

Col. Lovell is widely known in the State, being among its early settlers, and prominent as a lawyer and public man for many years. He has served as Lt. Col. of the 33d since August, 1862, and has, during a considerable portion of the time, commanded the brigade. He is not only a man of ability and military experience, but is generally beloved by those with whom he is associated. He will make an excellent and popular colonel.

Lt. Colonel—1st Lt. Leonard Martin, now commanding Battery F, 5th U. S. Artillery.

Lt. Col. Martin is a son of Maj. Morgan L. Martin, of Green Bay, and is a graduate of the Military Academy at West Point.

Major—Capt. Chas. F. Ford, late of the veteran 6th Wisconsin.

Major Ford has seen three years of honorable service in the Iron Brigade, and is well deserving of promotion.

Adjutant—W. G. Ritchie, of Oshkosh, formerly Clerk of the Winnebago Circuit Court.

Quartermaster—Norman Stewart, of Baraboo, formerly Sheriff of Sauk county.—Madison Journal.

GENERAL SHERMAN.—Mr. Modill, one of the editors of the Chicago Tribune, writes to his paper from Washington, as follows:

Gen. Sherman is Northward with his invincible Western campaign. Men who never experienced the sensation of defeat, and don't intend to. Leaving a garrison in Savannah of corps of infantry, Gen. Sherman and the force under Gen. Foster, marched north on the 27th of December. In a few days you will hear of him in the vicinity of Charleston. His business there can be easily divined. If he needs any more troops Grant will supply them. The fleet will give him all the assistance in its power. The capture of that infernal nest of rebellion may be set down as a reasonably certain event at no distant day. General Sherman makes no disguise of his intention to take Charleston. The rebels will doubtless offer a strong resistance, and are ready to spill torrents of blood before surrendering their Mecca; but an invincible force of the place will soon bring the defenders down to male mutations, and hunger will force even a Scotchman—the most unyielding of mortals—to succumb.

The withdrawal of Admiral Porter's fleet from before Fort Fisher is a crumb of comfort which the Richmond papers make the most of.

The Examiner is quite facetious and suggests that if Porter had thrown Butler overboard perhaps no storm would have blown the fleet to sea and derailed the physique and morale of the invincible Armada.

Is a long account published in the New York Herald, of Sherman's march through Georgia, it is mentioned that the 3d Wisconsin was one of the first regiments to enter Milledgeville, and with the 104th New York was detailed as provost guard there; and in a fight between Kilpatrick and Wheeler, near Waynesboro, on the 4th, credit is given to Capt. Debe's 10th Wisconsin Battery for doing fine work.

A good looking Congressman pushed past a soldier who was guarding the entrance to the ladies' car at Washington the other day, when the blue coat stopped him, saying: "Ladies, car, sir. You cannot go in there." "But," says our friend, "I am a member of Congress." "Can't help that, sir. If I let you in there, they will put me in the guard-house; and that is a sight I don't want to see." "But," says our friend, "I am a member of Congress." "Can't help that, sir. If I let you in there, they will put me in the guard-house; and that is a sight I don't want to see."

It is the practice in burying the dead from the Army of the Potomac hospitals to inclose valuable information to friends, in a bottle and put it in a coffin with the remains; in addition to which a board is put at the head of the grave containing the sacred fact.

CALVIN CUSHING said, in a letter to the New England Society of New York: "I have been silent so long that my mind is overflowing with things I desire to say suited to such an occasion." Mr. Cushing has the floor; we listen to hear him break the long silence.

The Channel Islands between England and France are gradually sinking into the sea.

New York drinks 600 barrels of whisky a day.

FROM SHERMAN'S COMMAND.

New York, Jan. 4.—The steamer Fulton from Hilton Head, Jan. 1st, has arrived bringing 1,100 passengers, including 200 officers of Sherman's army.

The Palmetto Herald contains the following items:

The gunboat Acacia captured the steamer Julia with 400 bales of cotton from Charleston for Nassau. The Julia arrived at Port Royal on the 28th.

Col. Noble, 16th Conn., Lt. Rice and Provost Marshal of Florida, and Captain Young, of Gen. Birney's staff, were captured by guerrillas while en route from Jacksonville to San Augustine. The Palmetto Herald will hereafter be printed at the office of the Savannah News and will become a daily paper. Mr. Mason its proprietor having removed to that city.

The Palmetto Herald's editorial correspondent of Savannah 29th says of the capture of Savannah: "When our forces took possession of Fort Jackson the rebel ram Savannah opened fire on the fort. The guns being spiked no response could be made, but a battery was soon brought to bear on the ram and peppered her briskly, but she being well plated was uninjured. She afterwards threw a few shells into the city, but the next night she ended her career by committing suicide.

At a Massie meeting in Savannah there were representatives of Massachusetts, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia, Illinois, Indiana, Colorado, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin and Ohio.

Gen. Sherman receives hundreds of citizens daily. He is in good health.

A grand review of the 10th Corps by Gen. Sherman took place in Bay street on the 25th.

The Mayor in the course of his address at the public meeting, said: "Our city contains 20,000 inhabitants, without food, fuel or remunerative pursuits, and with out refuge, cut off from all connection with the country. The heart sickens at the sight." He saw but one course to pursue. He said they all felt deeply indebted to Gen. Geary, for the course he had pursued.

A blockade-running schooner with an assorted cargo, came up and anchored near the city, on the 29th, unaware that the city had changed hands.

On the 25th a new marsh battery was erected by Foster's forces, and a train of stores stopped by it. A portion of Hardee's force had passed the point by marching around on an old wagon road.

The work of clearing the river of obstructions is going on, and one of our monitors has arrived at Savannah.

New York, Jan. 4.—The U. S. steamer Massachusetts, at Philadelphia, from Charleston bar, of the 30th, reports that our iron-clads, nine in number, had returned to Charleston harbor and it was reported that Admiral Dahlgren was in co-operation with Sherman in the attack on Charleston.

A large force is reported to have marched from Savannah for that purpose.

THE WILMINGTON EXPEDITION.

PORT MONROE, Jan. 2.—Rear Admiral Porter's fleet is reported to be at Beaufort safely anchored, having successfully weathered the storm off Wilmington. All the remaining transports were on their way to Hampton Roads.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Benson J. Lossen, just returned from Wilmington, has today made a full statement of that unfortunate attack to the President. The general bearing of his statement is entirely in favor of Gen. Butler, in the controversy which has been instituted between him and Rear Admiral Porter. He maintains the primary cause of the failure to have been the delay in the sailing of the expedition which, as he claims, wasted four days of fine weather. Next, he places an unwillingness on the part of Rear Admiral Porter to co-operate with Butler. The powder boat was not only exploded without co-operation with Butler, but absolutely without his knowledge. Next, according to this statement, after the bombardment Porter sent word to Gen. Butler to go ahead and occupy the fort; that there was not a rebel within five miles of it. Weitzel's reconnaissance, however, showed the fort to be full of men and in that officer's more emphatic language, he would have held himself guilty of murder if he had ordered an attack, for the success of which there would have been scarcely a chance. Two days before he claims that the rebel force in the fort, was so small that an attack made then, as it might have been, would have been entirely successful. The statement that some of their skirmishers got inside the works and there captured a flag, is incorrect. The flag was taken in one of the outer works. They were prevented from approaching nearer the rebel garrison by the combined fire of the rebel garrison and our navy. Twenty-four hours before the attack but one thousand men formed the whole garrison of Fort Fisher and the adjacent earthworks. During the needless delay Hardee's division arrived from Lee's army, and these reinforcements made the garrison equal, if not outnumber Butler's force.

FROM WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The Commercial's Washington special says the news from Richmond to-day show that increased desire on the part of the rebels to make Lee supreme military commander.

Collector Draper left this city this afternoon in the transport Granada for Savannah, where he will take testimony relative to the ownership of the cotton captured there by Sherman, and make such disposition as the War Department may direct.

Mr. Draper was made a cotton agent some two months ago when he filled the necessary bonds to the amount of 200,000. The cotton will probably be sent here for sale or may be shipped to Europe.

Col. Julian Allen has been sent north by the Mayor and Common Council of Savannah to purchase for that city certain articles of food for distribution to the necessitous families. It is said our merchants are anxious to open communication with Savannah and to show their good will contemplated, making a free gift of supplies to the poor of that city.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The agitation of the question for the repeal of the duty on printing paper has created a panic in the market. It is freely offered here for 20c, and some of the principal publishers refuse to give over 18c.

New England manufacturers are bringing in their paper here and selling it for 20c. Some have been offered at 10c, and it is thought that prices will soon be down to 16c. Movements are progressing that will probably break down monopoly in paper.

Quebec advices say there is trouble in Canada over the enforcement of the draft for militia men to serve on the frontier. The French refuse to serve and the drafting officers drive out several counties. A strong force have been ordered out to put down this insurrection.

The North trip will probably be concluded to-morrow.

Commander Collins has been detached from the Wachusett and ordered to report at Washington. He is to be tried by a naval court.

New York, January 4.—Captain Wise, of the Naval Ordnance Bureau, has determined to withdraw the 100-pounder Parrots from service, and the feeling among naval officers induces the belief that this view will be sustained by the Examining Board and the Department.

The Evening Post has received assurances from a distinguished gentleman in Washington whose position gives him the best opportunities for ample and accurate information, which enables it to say that no more gold bearing bonds will be issued, that additional inducements of currency will take place, and that the Government will rely for entire expenditures on the 7-30 loan and the taxes.

FROM THE SOUTH.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Advises from Richmond are of such tenor as to induce the belief among certain officials that the rebel Congress has already in secret session passed a bill giving Jeff. Davis or Gen. Lee power to call out or order for detail not less than 50,000 slaves for service in the army as soldiers.

The Sentinel says: "Our late reverses have done much towards preparing our people for extreme sacrifices. If subjugated, the question is simply whether we shall give for our own use, or whether the Yankees shall take for theirs. It would be more glorious to devote our means to success than to lose them as spoils to the enemy. Our situation, stripped of our property, but masters of our Government, would be infinitely better than if despoiled by the enemy and wearing his brands."

Subjugation is a horror that embraces all other horrors. Troublesome times are upon us. We need all our strength and wisdom. Let there be a conference of our wisest men. Let there be a calm investigation to the employment of all our resources removed. So long as we have a man or a dollar left the call for them is honored. We would be adding disgrace to our misdeeds if we were overcome without exhausting every resource of defense. If the Government determines that it needs our lands, houses, negroes, horses, money, or ourselves, it must have them. If Providence condemns us to a master let it not be a Yankee. Of all the people on earth we have most reason to loathe and deride them. Any terms with any other would be preferable to subjugation by them. If statesmanship cannot save us it can palliate our misery by saving us from the Yankees. Our people would infinitely prefer a favorable alliance with European nations.

The Richmond Examiner, after commenting on the above, says: "If it be necessary to convince the world that we are fighting for the free government of the whites, then we should liberate the negroes, and in that liberation should secure our recognition and the guaranty of England or France to our independence, and believe the people of these States will not hesitate to make the sacrifice. The consequences of emancipation would fall upon the negro. The act would be one of necessity, not of choice, taken against our judgment and convictions, but to save us from the horrors of a prolonged war, and the disgrace, ruin and destruction involved in the success of our enemy."

The Richmond Sentinel, commenting on the re-embarkation of Butler's troops, says that they should have been driven off so soon after effecting a landing of five brigades, is astonishing, when we consider the force at the time, opposed to them. The Examiner says: "It seems hardly possible that a force so enormous should be beaten off and abandoned by a garrison of a few hundred men. A good part of the force was raw militia. A good part doubt whether any serious attack had been made, and whether the whole demonstration were not a reconnaissance or feint preliminary to a grand movement against a real objective point in another place."

It remarks: "Never again will the Wilmington forts be so strongly garrisoned."

The Dispatch says the repulse to the Wilmington expedition had a most cheering effect on the spirits of the people. During the first two days of the work there was a very decided apprehension in the community that Wilmington, our best seaport would succumb to the immense force sent against it, and the immediate effect was that specie disappeared from the market. The enemy having expended their utmost strength on Fort Fisher, an outburst of Wilmington, and been disastrously beaten, it again creeps out, and was yesterday offered at 48 with few buyers.

The Whig says: "Fortune has been setting steadily against us for some months. It may be hoped the turning point is now reached—that we have suffered all we were doomed to suffer on this occasion; that we have sufficiently exhausted our funds or facilities, or whatever has brought misfortune upon our arms, and that henceforth, for some time at least, we may look forward to a reasonably share of good fortune. So far from being depressed, there is every reason to feel hopeful."

The Sentinel of the 30th says: "Sherman is still in Savannah, and no movement this side of the river has taken place since the evacuation of Savannah. It is probable Sherman will recruit his men before he moves on Augusta, or whatever point he designs attacking."

The Augusta Chronicle of the 28th, referring to Savannah, says: "Our works around the city are very strong, and the place in all probability would have held out had it not been for the fall of Fort McAllister."

The Richmond Examiner, of the 24, in reply to the Sentinel, opposes the appeal to protection from France and England in the present weakness of the South, and intimates that the article in the Sentinel recommending such a policy emanated from Jeff. Davis and from a paucity mind.

It says if the alternatives were presented to them of being subjects of those foreign powers or returning to the United States, they would choose the former.

New York, Jan. 4.—The following is the concluding paragraph of a long article in the Richmond Sentinel, Jeff. Davis' organ:

"If France and England will enter into a treaty with the Confederate States, recognizing our nationality and guaranteeing our independence on the addition of slavery in all these States, rather than continue the war, we should be prepared to urge the measure on our readers. We think such a proposition would be favorably received and acted on by those nations, and it ought to be made to them."

FROM EUROPE.

New York, Jan. 4.—The Pope of Rome, in response to the manifesto of the Confederate States, applauds the pacific sentiment presented therein, and deplors the further continuance of the bloody struggle between the North and the South. He will not fail to avail himself of a favorable opportunity to urge peace.

The Shipping Gazette says that the advices from Mexico confirm the report that President Juarez has issued orders for the further continuance of the bloody struggle between the North and the South. He will not fail to avail himself of a favorable opportunity to urge peace.

The Army and Navy Gazette publishes the idea that Sherman was obliged to leave Atlanta.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, Jan. 4.—Gold is strong with active speculative demand. The bulls have monopolized the market well and with success. The price opened at 232½ and advanced to 233½.

New York, Jan. 4.—The distillery men in New York and elsewhere, heretofore charged with violations of the internal revenue law, are now paying the pecuniary penalties to which they are liable.

B. S. Osborne, a noted reporter of New York, has been ordered by order of the President, and ordered to be tried for furnishing to the public press, and requiring the publication of the details of the Wilmington expedition, thereby causing the enemy to reinforce their works at Federal Point.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—A letter from the Army of the Potomac describes the following operations of the Dutch Gap Canal: "The earth was cut away as much as possible. Galleries were constructed under the remaining earth, and six tons of powder placed in them. The operation was very slight and was not as successful as expected. The earth must be dredged out. The rebel have twenty cannon beaching on the upper end of the canal. Much work must be done before our gunboats can ascend the river above the canal."

FROM CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—The Ishamus pirates have arrived here and are confined in Fort Alcatraz. They will be tried here. The anniversary of the Emancipation is being celebrated here by the colored people with great impressiveness.

Special Election Postponed.

The election to vote upon the question of raising money to pay bounty for volunteers, set down for to-day was postponed until the 12th inst. See notice elsewhere.

The delegates from the several fire companies will meet at the house of Rescue Hook and Ladder Co. this Thursday evening at seven o'clock, for the purpose of nominating the officers of the Fire Department for the ensuing year.

Robert Gaddis, Sec'y. Hook and Ladder Co.

Messrs. Editors.—Almost every day and sometimes twice or thrice a day, our citizens are treated to the dangerous spectacle of runaway teams and single horses upon our streets and sidewalks, running at fearful speed, to the imminent peril of life and limb to all passers in the streets. Is it not time that our city council took some stringent measures to prevent this? A good round fine, where these runaways are known to be the result of carelessness, as they usually are, promptly collected, would have a healthy tendency, and would no doubt be the means of preventing, one of these days, a sad disaster. Let this be done before it is too late.

New Agent.—Mr. J. A. Head was installed yesterday as Freight Agent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company at this place. Mr. Head is highly spoken of by those personally acquainted with him and we feel confident that he will discharge the duties incidental to his position in a manner which will be satisfactory alike to the community and to the company.

Mr. H. Francis resigned as agent here, in order to return to Fond du Lac, preparatory to entering upon his duties as sheriff of Fond du Lac County, to which office he was chosen by the Republicans of that county at the late election. We wish him success in his new position.

Board of Supervisors.—Wednesday, January 4th, 1893.—The board met in pursuance to adjournment, all the members answering to their names. The minutes of the last meeting were read.

Mr. Powell offered a resolution authorizing the purchase of a clock for the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, which was adopted.

Mr. Powell offered a resolution appropriating $1,000 to the sheriff on account of boarding prisoners, to be drawn quarterly in advance.

William Tallman, chairman on miscellaneous accounts, reported bills in favor of different parties for wolf bounties to the amount of $70, which was allowed, and more are to come. (A great wolf season this.)

Mr. Verbeck asked relief from the board from over assessment of personal property. His memorial was referred to a proper committee.

W. H. Tripp, Chairman of Constable, Justice and Coroner's accounts, reported bills to the amount of $96.19, which were allowed.

The Board adjourned to 2 o'clock.

Afternoon.

Board met, all the members were present and answered to their names.

W. H. Tripp reported the bill of George F. Ellis and Wm. Pully, for serving as jury at the inquisition on the bodies of Levi Grant and G. Groner, which was allowed.

The claim for killing six young foxes or wolves, which they were yet to be ascertained, was set down for this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Cooper, Ch'n on witness accounts, reported against bills from different parties claiming fees for attending as witnesses on the part of the defense. The report was adopted.

Mr. Cooper also reported the bill of John M. Case, assigned to Joseph Peet, for $87. This bill was before the Board in November and was withdrawn for correction and was allowed to-day.

Mr. Himman, of Beloit, presented tax receipts for lots in Beloit which had been sold and a deed obtained for the same, and asked that the deed may be canceled.

Messrs. Riley and Dickenson, of Johnstown, appeared and presented witnesses to substantiate their claim for killing five young foxes or wolves.

Mr. Tallman, Chairman on the above bills, reported in favor of allowing the bills, and the Board refused to sustain the report of the committee.

Mr. Cooper reported bills of D. Allen, H. A. Patterson and C. G. Williams for services as attorney to defend criminal, by order of court, to the amount of $80, which was allowed. The memorial of J. M. May was called up and the bill reported back without any action on the same.

Mr. Tallman reported bills in favor of Boswick, Doty and Veeder, and recommended their passage. The board adjourned till to-morrow at 9 o'clock.

Letter from Clinton.

A happy New Year and kindly greeting to all. Many and great are the changes which the year just gone, has brought to us all. Many of the brave boys in blue who occupy the uppermost place in the thoughts of very many of us, have, since the just dead year began, gone to join that vast army of martyrs to liberty whose blood has been for the saving of the nation.

There is very little that is interesting or new in this town. In my last I mentioned the death of Dr. Hunter, formerly of this place. Since then his oldest son, Frank, well known to many of the citizens of Janesville as a law student in the office of Mr. Whiton, has died; his disease was chronic diarrhoea, contracted while in the army. He finished a three years term of service in May, but returned in broken health. He went to Atchison, Kansas and opened a law office, but was compelled to relinquish his business on account of his health. He was at home at the time of his father's death, and survived him but three weeks. The remnant of the family has returned to Clinton to reside.

Clinton Babbitt of Beloit has rented both of Wyman's new stores and intends to fill them with a general assortment of goods about the first of March. This is right; we need the goods.

John Perrine, Esq. who sold his farm here last spring to Benson Bros. and went to Beloit to live, has bought the farm of Aaron Case, known as the Mendenhall farm, and is coming back to Clinton to live. (We are all glad of it, by-the-by.) He says Beloit is too dull a town by itself to live in. This is entirely natural, for it is a common saying that any man who ever owned a foot of land on Jefferson Prairie was never afterwards contented off from it.

I see "Harmony" is jubilant over the fact that they still continue so virtuous. Well, so might we be "without spot and blemish" if we had neither a store, warehouse, railroad, blacksmith shop, church nor town hall, where we could get our people together at home.

Mr. Editor, Harmony ought to be entirely holy with a name which indicates entire unity, with all the advantages and none of the disadvantages of Janesville in front of her, and Mount Zion in the rear, why not? Pretty good folks in Harmony, I know. I threshed there once. To be continued.

Clinton, Jan. 2, 1893.

SAVE LABOR AND SAVE CLOTHES.—Read what the leading Agricultural papers say of Doty's Clothes and Wool Washers:

"Doty's Washing Machine we have tried thoroughly for nearly a year past, in competition with many others sent to us, and for actual service this seems to be an improvement upon every previous machine we have tested. It is compact, and easily and naturally worked. One better built, who has been complimented with the gift of a score or more of different machines for trial, says this is taken to most kindly by the 'help,' and that she cannot persuade them to use any other while this is at hand."

—American Agriculturist.

"It is so exceedingly simple that it is almost impossible to believe that it is of any value until it has been fairly tested; but after experiencing the luxury of sitting down and washing an indefinite amount of soiled clothes with not as much physical labor as is required to work a sewing machine, its simplicity ceases to be an objection. It has been used in our family for several months, and proves every way excellent."

—Genuine Farmer.

"It is certainly simple, compact, easily and efficiently operated."—Rural New Yorker.

"The construction of Doty's Washer, besides adapting it admirably to family washing, fits it also better than any other machine for cleaning fleeces without tearing them apart."—Working Farmer.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 13, 1894.

IV. M. Doty.

DEAR SIR:—The washing machine works right. It is the first one of all that have been tried in my family that stands the test. My wife is perfectly satisfied with the "Paragon." Yours truly,

S. D. HARRIS, Ed. Ohio Farmer.
